RE: Susan Storm Liquid Asset Report

As requested, we initiated and completed a basic asset investigation on Susan Storm in the State of California. The results of our investigation are as follows:

Employment/Sources of Income

Our search revealed the subject is employed by the County of Orange, in the Official Recorder's office. The Recorder's Office is located at 12 Civic Center Plaza, Room 101, Santa Ana, California 92701.

We were unable to determine the subject's monthly or annual income, due to the employer's privacy rules.

Our investigation found no other sources of income for this subject.

Our search included all banking and/or investment institutions identified to us as possibly held in the subject's name. We cannot obtain domestic banking or investment institution information in violation of federal banking privacy laws pertaining to banks and investment institutions, including without limitation the Financial Services Modernization Act of 1999, commonly known as the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act; and, in particular, the financial privacy rules codified at 15 U.S. Code §§ 6801-6809; and the provisions of 15 USC §§ 6821-6827, and related statutes.

Business Ownership Search

A current seven-year search for any businesses owned or operated by the subject was conducted. This search includes a search for fictitious business names in the subject's county of residence, and also includes a search of Secretary of State records for the subject's participation as an officer, director or registered agent of any corporation, limited liability company or registered partnership in California.

Our search found one (1) record of the subject owning a non-owner occupied single family residence, in addition to the subject's primary residence. It appears from our investigation that this non-occupied property is rented to tenants. We would need to conduct an interview and/or onsite inspection of said property, to determine whether the subject is receiving any rental income from this property.

Our search found no record of any other business entity or operations, referenced by the name of the subject of this report.

Recommendations

We recommend that further investigation be performed regarding this subject. In particular, we recommend a review and analysis of the subject's Chapter 7 Bankruptcy Court filings be conducted, to determine the nature, location and amounts of assets, court cases and other potential assets disclosed to the Bankruptcy Court. Such an analysis would also disclose the current status and/or enforceability of judgments and liens filed against the subject.

Please contact this office to discuss arrangements so that we may perform this additional investigation work. It is a pleasure to be of service to you. Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact our office.
